

Biography

Henriette Anne Klauser, Ph.D. is one of America's leading authorities on communications and writing productivity. She is author of the best-selling books Writing on Both Sides of the Brain (HarperCollins, 1987, now in its 24th printing) Put Your Heart on Paper (Bantam, 1995, now in its 8th printing), and the new Write it Down/Make it Happen (Scribner, 2000; paperback, Simon & Schuster, 2001).

Henriette is the president of Writing Resources, a seminar and consulting organization in existence since 1979 with offices in Edmonds, Washington. She has taught at the University of Washington, California State University, Seattle University, University of Lethbridge in Alberta, and Fordham. Her clients include Fortune 500 companies, government agencies, universities, and national associations throughout North America. A past trustee of the Pacific Northwest Writers Conference, she is listed in the International Who's Who in Business and Professional Women. Her workshops have taken her around the world, including to London, England; Cairo, Egypt and the island of Skyros in Greece.

Dr. Klauser has been featured in such diverse publications as Redbook, Glamour magazine, Good Housekeeping, and The New Age Journal, and the premiere issue of O! The Oprah Magazine. She has been interviewed by The London Times, USA Today, and The Washington Post. She is a regular contributor to, as well as bi-monthly columnist for, Writers Digest's Personal Journaling magazine.

In a world that is becoming more high-tech by the day, Henriette has dedicated her life to helping people think, write, and work together more efficiently while keeping the element of high-touch and humanity alive in their communication.
